

Sinclair's attempt to influence election results by airing the Anti-Kerry special days before the election must be considered a violation of campaign finance law. Moreover, it is forcing its syndicates to air the program, so that it can reach a wider percentage of the public. If this is not dirty politics I don't know what is. I hope that the FCC will take action to block Sinclair and to penalize them for their flagrant flaunting of campaign finance law.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Rebecca Golbert
